Dean's Message</h2> We cannot lead the Fourth Round of the Industrial Revolution Age without an educational innovation. We have been always long for an online innovation university such as the Minerva University, USA. You don't have to be bothered by time and space to experience the world's prestigious lecture, and to achieve international higher degree. You don't need to leave your present job, may study like an equivalence of international students, and learn English naturally. Based on your effort you can achieve much earlier doctoral degree than expected, and only with practical tuition fee you can get globalized graduate education. We were waiting for a long time to emerge on such kind of future innovative university as PIC (Pacific InterContinental College). Now I am honored to introduce the future innovative university, PIC and its on-line graduate program of ECE. As the Fourth Round of the Industrial Revolution Society is a complex specified fusion society, its society need the well-prepared, highly-qualified professional experts who have obtained at least the higher degree like MA or Ph.D. Therefore, our graduate program has high accessibility to those workers in the field of early childhood education, child industries, educational material company, child care administration, child care public and private institution, early childhood research institution, early childhood NGO agencies. Above all, the PIC college is an on-line international university which has main campus in the United States and the Philippines with long history and tradition, and mainly focused on the on-line graduate program. Our graduate program's uniqueness is based on the learner-centered management system. According to each stage of graduate life, i.e.: orientation stage, course work process stage, degree completion stage, the most optimized mentor to mentee system operates to satisfy students' school performance. In addition, we really continue to provide for the follow-up support system for students; as soon as their doctoral dissertation is completed, it is granted to be published in domestically and internationally prestigious A class journals.

We offer students an entrance and graduation ceremony, and a variety of other experiences such as the workshops and seminars among several advanced nations to develop their harmonious interaction and community spirit. Finally, I wish you may achieve your ideal dreams and hopes with our PIC.

Come! See!! and Conquer your Future!!!
